

Expectations for Class Members:

- To participate, you must make appropriate arrangements to attend all Series functions. Most sessions are scheduled for Saturdays. Corresponding social events and other events may also be scheduled prior to or after each session.
- Attendance at all sessions is mandatory to be eligible for graduation.
- Selected class members are required to provide a high-quality digital photograph for marketing purposes.
- Each class member is responsible for paying a class registration fee of $125 prior to the first session.
- Each class member is responsible for all travel expenses to attend the class sessions.
- All class members are highly encouraged to travel to Washington D.C. to attend the annual National Excellence in Public Service Series meeting. The Series pays for the cost of your meals and the national meeting registration. Lodging and transportation are each member's responsibility.
